	01_1-10 Worksheet lesson 1	The auxiliary time words	Convert a) into interrogative sentences	Convert b) into negative sentences.
	Structure pattern:	Do you like it? I didn't do it.
	Grammar:	Full verbs are paraphrased with to do in the present and past tense in questions and negations.
	More Examples:	They didn't do it well. Did you go there? What does she do for a living? Don't do that.
	Exercise:	Convert the following sentences a) into interrogative sentences, b) into negative sentences. (Use the short forms don't, doesn't, didn't.)
	Example: John knows her.		Does John know her?	John doesn't know her.
Exercise:
1	He comes from England.
2	He stayed with the Millers last winter.
3	Ben turned off the radio.
4	Ron likes looking at television.
5	He goes to the mountains every year.
6	They went to the station.
7	Margaret typed the letter yesterday.
8	He reads well.
9	She sent him a telegram.
10	They understand the text.

© copyright: UWE School - Universal Worldwide Education – Oxford Language School for English as a Second Language